

We the students, in order to form a more perfect classroom, establish routines, ensure a peaceful atmosphere, provide for learning opportunities, to promote educational excellence, and to secure the blessings of public education do ordain and establish this Constitution for Mr. Gigliotti's United States History class:

Respect	Responsible	Ready to learn
Listen when others are talking	Bring a charged Macbook to class	Stay in your seat
Treat others the way you want to be treated	Complete your assignments on time	Be on time to class
Keep your hands to yourself	Make good choices	Be an active learner
Respect other's property	Celebrate success & own your mistakes	Come to class with a positive attitude & an open mind

Consequences for violating this social contract include: 1. Warning 2. Stay one minute after class 3. After school detention & parent contact*

After participating in writing this classroom constitution, I hereby consent to the expectations above :

Print your name: _____ Signature: _____ Date: ___/___/___